

Fox named RID deputy director

In October, Stephen Fox was selected as deputy director of TDCJ's Reentry and Integration Division.

Fox has more than 20 years' experience with TDCJ, first as a correctional officer at the Allred Unit in Iowa Park beginning in 1996. He moved to the Private Facilities Contract Monitoring and Oversight Division (PFCMOD) in 2004 where he worked as a contract monitor at the Bridgeport Correctional Center and most recently served as deputy director of PFCMOD Programs Monitoring.

Stephen Fox

As RID deputy director, Fox will help oversee daily operations of Reentry Planning and the Texas Correctional Office on Offenders with Medical or Mental Impairments.

RID Director April Zamora congratulated Steve on his new position, saying "Steve brings a wealth of knowledge in contract monitoring and leadership that will serve the division and agency well."

Fox holds a bachelor's in Criminal Justice from Texas A&M University-Commerce. ▲