The Texas Crime Victim Clearinghouse (TxCVC) serves as a central source of information about services and issues involving crime victims in Texas.

Texans are fortunate to have a growing coalition of professionals and volunteers who are ready to assist victims of juvenile and adult offenders.

The Texas Crime Victim Clearinghouse serves victims across the state through education and training, resources and referrals, and by updating the Victim Impact Statement every odd numbered year. TxCVC produces a quarterly newsletter called The Victim's Informer and hosts a periodic training conference.

Through the toll-free hotline, TxCVC helps connect victims to resources. Through technical assistance and training workshops, TxCVC helps to improve the skills of victim advocates and other professionals who have contact with victims.
